Re: Belovic v. Doar
07Civ2876(LAP)(KNF)

Dear Judge Preska:

I am the Assistant Corporation Counsel assigned to represent the City defendant in this matter, concerning Adult Protective Services (APS). I write following a telephone conference among the parties this afternoon, and in anticipation of our teleconference with the Court on Monday, April 30, 2007, at 9:00 a.m.

Prior to this afternoon's conference, City defendant sent plaintiffs' counsel a letter detailing the current status of the five named plaintiffs, and indicating the interventions and services APS has provided or will provide. A copy of this letter is enclosed herein for the Court's convenience.

Although the City defendant had anticipated that plaintiffs would withdraw the motion for preliminary injunction based on the significant progress in providing virtually all the relief requested to the extent possible, plaintiffs have indicated they are not yet willing to withdraw the motion for preliminary injunction, and suggest an additional two weeks to monitor progress, followed by another conference with the Court.

Accordingly, plaintiffs have agreed to extend the return date of the motion for an additional two weeks, from May 7, 2007 to May 21, 2007. Furthermore, the parties have agreed to an extension of time for all defendants to respond to the complaint, until June 29, 2007.

The class certification motion is held in abeyance until June 29 at which time counsel shall inform the Court how they wish to proceed. Counsel shall participate in a telephone conference on May 14 at 9:30 am. So ordered. Loretta A. Preska, USDC
